Additional Information

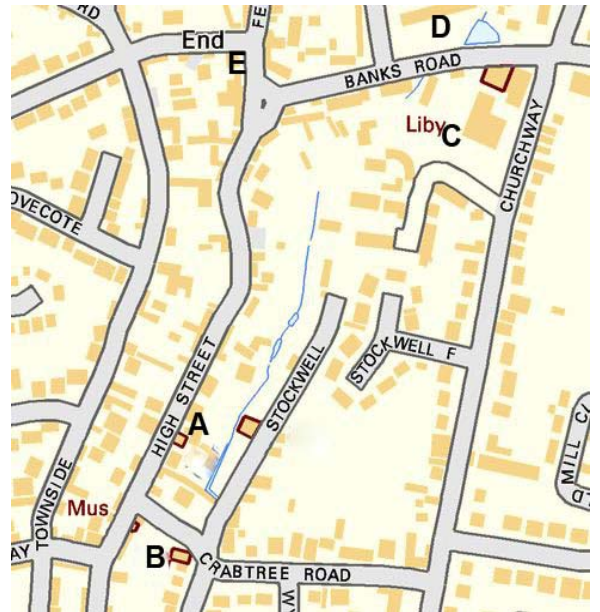

The workshop will run from 10 am until 4 pm with breaks for refreshments

Getting to the Workshop ('A' on the map)

BY RAIL: Take Chiltern Railways line to Haddenham and Thame Parkway station from Bicester, Banbury, Oxford and the Midlands, and from London (Marylebone) via High Wycombe (through service), or to Aylesbury via Amersham and then Arriva Bus route 280 as below.

From the station by foot (15 min), turn left towards the village centre and Fort End (E), or from the station forecourt take the 280 bus towards Aylesbury (every 20 min), and alight at the Fort End stop.

BY BUS: Take Arriva Bus route 280 (every 20 min) from Aylesbury Bus Station, or from Oxford Rail Station via Headington, Thame and Haddenham and Thame Parkway station, alighting at the Fort End (E) stop, then follow the walking route below.

WALKING ROUTE from Fort End (E): At the triangular green opposite the House of Spice Indian Restaurant follow the High Street. The Methodist Church (A) is after about 250 metres on the left.

PARKING in the High Street is currently very restricted. However, you can use the parking spaces at the Church of the Good Shepherd (B) (please vacate by 4.30 pm) and there are additional spaces behind the Village Hall (C), in Banks Road Parade (D) and on-street.

When parking on-street, please use consideration for residents and road users: some of the roads in Haddenham are very narrow.

Special Offer for Non Members

If you are attending the Workshop and decide to join Thame Choral Society for the Spring Term to take part in the performance of Elijah on 21 April 2018, your Workshop fee will be deducted from the Subscription for the term. Please ask a member of the Committee for information on the day.
